Group Health Cooperative of South Central Wisconsin (GHC-SCW) 2023 Pre-Professional Medical Diversity Scholarship

The GHC-SCW Pre-Professional Medical Diversity Scholarship seeks to award financial grants to under-represented students. Specifically, we are offering a scholarship for students who identify as Black, Indigenous, and/or Hispanic/Latinx who are currently enrolled in medical school (including residency), physician assistant, and nurse practitioner programs in Wisconsin.

The scholarship awards $5,000 grants to each of three selected scholars. The funds will be distributed in October 2023.

Scholars will be selected through an online application process due by June 15, 2023. In addition to the monetary scholarship, each scholar chosen will be awarded the opportunity for an on-site shadowing experience at GHC during the 2023 fall semester.

Eligibility:

- Pre-professional students or residents in a Wisconsin-based health science degree program (MD, DO, PA, and NP) or residency.
- Identifies as Black, Indigenous, and/or Hispanic/Latinx
- Strong professional interest in a primary care career in Wisconsin

Selection Criteria:

- Scholars will be chosen based on demonstrated interest in a primary care field in Wisconsin.

Deadline to Apply:

- June 15, 2023

Timeline:

- Distribution of scholarship in October 2023 with an opportunity for a shadowing experience at GHC-SCW during the fall of 2023.

How to apply:

- Email submission with application attachments to Laureine Lacossiere, Provider Recruiter, llacossiere@ghcscw.com

Completed applications should include the following:

- Application Form which includes contact and demographic information (See backside of this flyer)
- Two Essay Responses (max 500 words per essay)
  - 1) What has been your journey to selecting a career in health care? Why might you be interested in practicing in a primary care field in Wisconsin in the future?
  - 2) In your view, why are diverse health care providers important to improving the lives of diverse communities?
- A signed letter from your school that verifies active enrollment in a MD, PA, NP, or residency program. (This could be a letter from a professor or counselor.)
